Reinach

107 East Broad Street.

All the latest ideas in up-to-date models will be on display every day in the coming week in our parlors on second floor. Our buyer was in the market the past week and has left no stone unturned to make this the banner week in style, quality and price—and ladies wishing Easter Millinery without the anxiety of giving an order will have hundreds of up-to-date models to select from.

For this week only—where hair goods are bought in our Hair Department hair will be dressed free of charge.

SOCIETY

Fleming, and Miss Jessie Reid read Goethe's poem, "The Erlking," just before the playing by Mr. Hough of Schubert's famous setting of the same, arranged for the piano by Liszt. The program opened with the brilliant overture for military band, and closed with the beautiful overture to "A Midsummer Night's Dream," both by Mendelssohn, performed by Mr. Hall and Mr. Hough.
